1  = 5000 Unemployed black men

BELIEVE IT OR NOT

As of late 2023, about 1.3 million Black Americans were unemployed which is roughly double the number of unemployed white Americans relative to population. An experiment was once done and a white person's resume is far more likely to be chosen, even if it is identical to a person of color.

1  = 110 Black people who have been killed by police

BELIEVE IT OR NOT

Since 2000, independent researchers estimate that approximately 6,600 Black Americans have been killed by police, many of which were driven by racial prejudice. These figures likely underestimate the true total due to incomplete reporting and data gaps. But this isn't just 6600 people, but 6600 families---who had to lose their father, mother, brother, or sister to a system that has failed them for the longest time that you can imagine.

1 Grain of Rice = a $1.55 million funding gap between majority-white and majority-black school districts

BELIEVE IT OR NOT

School districts serving majority-Black and Brown students receive $23 billion less in funding than majority-white districts, despite serving the same number of students. But it isn't only a lack of quality in their education but also a lack of opportunities for an equal future and a better life.
